16TH ANNUAL ANZSIL CONFERENCE
NATIONAL MUSEUM OF AUSTRALIA, CANBERRA
26 – 28 JUNE 2008

“Security, Scarcity, Struggle: The Dilemmas of International Law”

Advance Notice

Dear All,

The 16th Annual ANZSIL Conference is fast approaching. This year's conference will take place from Thursday 26th – Saturday 28th June 2008 at the National Museum of Australia, Canberra. The theme “Security, Scarcity, Struggle: The Dilemmas of International Law” reflects a number of debates that are currently occurring in the area of public international law. Several key speakers have already been organised for the Conference. These include Professor Antony Anghie, Samuel D. Thurman Professor of Law from the University of Utah. New to this year's conference is the Inaugural Annual Kirby Lecture in International Law established to recognise Justice Michael Kirby AC CMG's long passion and service to international law. The first Kirby lecture will be delivered by Professor James Crawford of Cambridge University on the evening of Thursday 26 June.

The draft program will be available on our website in the coming weeks. Registration will also open at this time. We are pleased to inform you that the registration fee for 2008 will remain the same as last year's. A discounted rate (highly subsidised by ANZSIL) for both the Conference and the Conference Dinner will be available for full time students.

We ask that you note the date of the Conference in you diary. It promises to be a highly engaging and enjoyable event.

Advance registrations of interest to receive the program for the Conference are welcome and should be directed to: ANZSIL Secretariat at <cipl@law.anu.edu.au>.
