

CIPL E-Bulletin – Vol. 4, No.3, 30 October 2009

Dear CIPL Associates,

Welcome to this third E-Bulletin for 2009!

With the Public law Week-end (PLW) soon upon us (please note registrations close next Friday 6th Nov) I wanted to be sure to send one further E Bulletin for the year before we release our annual Newsletter at the PLW.

Those of you attending the PLW will receive a hard copy of the Newsletter and those not present will be sent the link to its presence online on our Website. Of course, if you want a hard copy and are not coming to the PLW do let us know.

The period since our last E Bulletin in August has been very busy. Our third CIPL workshop Environmental Discourses in Public and International law held with ACEL was a great success and all participants are now working on their chapters for the third book in the CIPL series. The first book in the series, Sanctions, Accountability and Governance in a Globalised World is due out in the next few weeks and orders can be made online at

<http://www.cambridge.org/catalogue/catalogue.asp?isbn=9780521114929>

The call for papers for the fourth workshop in this series for 2010 around the theme Allegiance and Identity in a Globalised World has just been finalised (see http://law.anu.edu.au/CIPL/2010_Workshop/Call_for_Papers.pdf) and we encourage you to distribute it to those who may have an interest in writing on this topic.

In this Bulletin you will find the links to the many CIPL Events over the past few months so that you can go and listen to the presentations available online, together with our upcoming events. I am really looking forward to seeing as many of you as possible in a couple of weeks at the PLW!

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions, ideas or suggestions for CIPL's activities.

Best wishes,
