

International Law Seminar

SADDAM HUSSEIN: MY PART IN HIS DOWNFALL

Professor Hilary Charlesworth

Date: Wednesday 28 July 2004
Time: 5.30-6.30pm
Place: Moot Court, 3rd floor,, Faculty of Law, Building 5 corner Fellows and East Roads, ANU

Professor Hilary Charlesworth has been the Director of the Centre for International and Public Law for the past six years. She is about to take up a new position with the Regulatory Institutions Network (RegNet) in the ANU's Research School of Social Sciences.

In this seminar, Hilary Charlesworth will discuss the role of international lawyers in the development of foreign policy, using the recent war on Iraq as a case study. She will argue that the traditional image of lawyers as 'speaking truth to power' needs to be recast.
