THE CENTRE FOR INTERNATIONAL AND PUBLIC LAW present

Informal seminar on the Report of the Inquiry into certain Australian companies in relation to the UN Oil-for-Food Programme

Tuesday 12 December 2006, 11am-12.30pm with lunch following
Staff Library, ANU College of Law (first floor)
- note early RSVP required by 6 Dec to cipl@law.anu.edu.au

The Centre for Commercial Law together with the Centre for International and Public law have facilitated an informal seminar to be held for our colleagues in the law school and interested academics around ANU to discuss the Cole Inquiry report.

Four of our colleagues will each speak for 15 minutes, followed by 30 minutes of discussion.

Kevin Boreham - international law

Stephen Bottomley - corporate governance

Daniel Stewart - public law

Vivien Holmes - legal ethics for in-house lawyers

For the purposes of catering for the lunch to follow the seminar could you please RSVP by a slightly earlier date than normal - Wed 6 December to cipl@law.anu.edu.au
