

Australian National University

Running a Large Commonwealth Legal Services Team: the Challenges and the Pitfalls

Friday 19 August 2011 1 – 2pm

Friday Lunchtime Seminar Series

Simon Matthews ATO General Counsel, Law & Practice and

Nick Westerink Assistant Commissioner Legal Service, Australian Taxation Office

Phillipa Weeks Staff Library ANU College of Law (Bldg 5),
Fellows Road, The Australian National University

Simon Matthews has been the ATO General Counsel since October 2010. He joined the ATO as an ANU BA/LLB graduate in 1990. Most of his career has been in policy and legislation areas of the office, but he also spent several years as a senior tax counsel in law interpretation. In his current role, Simon and his team has corporate responsibility for safe guarding the ATO's non-tax legal risks.

Nick Westerink oversees ATO Legal Services – the largest litigators in the Australian court system. His career with ATO spans 29 years, and predominantly within the legal environment. His current role as Assistant Commissioner, Legal Services is a practice management role with responsibility for budgeting, recruitment, planning, processes, procedures and systems. Nick is admitted to practice as a solicitor in NSW and Queensland.

The views expressed in this lecture are those of the presenter and do not necessarily represent the views of The Australian National University.

Presented by

Centre for International
& Public Law
ANU College of Law

RSVP

by Wednesday 17 August 2011

E rsvp@law.anu.edu.au T 02 6125 8518

This lecture is free and open to the public

ANU Public Lecture Series information:

anu.edu.au/publiclectures

MO_##### | CRICOS# 00120C

PUBLIC SEMINAR