Security

The Australian National University

University Security officers patrol the campus and are on call around the clock to deal with enquires and to provide assistance and support. Phone: 61252249

University of Canberra

This service is available 24 hours 7 days each week. Security may be contacted at all times for reporting suspicious activities, thefts, threats, forced entry. Security officers wear distinctive uniforms and carry an identity card. An escort service is available from rooms to car parks and bus stops upon request. A number of Unisafe security phones are available on the outside of buildings for such calls. Phone: 6201 2222 or ext 2222 from Unisafe phones around campus.

Smoking Policy

The Australian National University

ANU maintains a smoke-free work environment. Smoking is prohibited in all University buildings and vehicles in addition to those locations where smoking is legally prohibited or otherwise restricted by the Smoking (Prohibition in Enclosed Public Places) Act 2003. This policy applies uniformly to all University staff, contractors, students, and visitors. University building includes all buildings on University grounds or under the University's administrative control including Halls of Residence and Colleges, University House, Arts Centre and University Union. Persons who wish to smoke outside a University building are asked, while smoking, to keep at least 10 metres away from any entrance way, doorway, window or ventilation intake of the building.

University of Canberra

At UC, smoking is prohibited in all outdoor eating and drinking areas. Smoking is restricted to various designated 'smoking areas' on campus. Please download a map of designated smoking areas on UC campus from: <http://www.canberra.edu.au/hr/health-safety/ohs-risk-mngt/tobacco-free-campus>.
