

NEWS

Successful workshop held by John Fleming Centre

On Wednesday 20 August 2008, Judge Mary Schroeder of the Ninth Circuit United States Court of Appeals, gave a public lecture in which she discussed the dangers to judicial independence that may result from judicial involvement in politically sensitive issues such as race, religion and allocation of scarce natural resources.

The audio file of the lecture can be accessed at:
<http://law.anu.edu.au/Audio/2008/Schroeder.mp3>

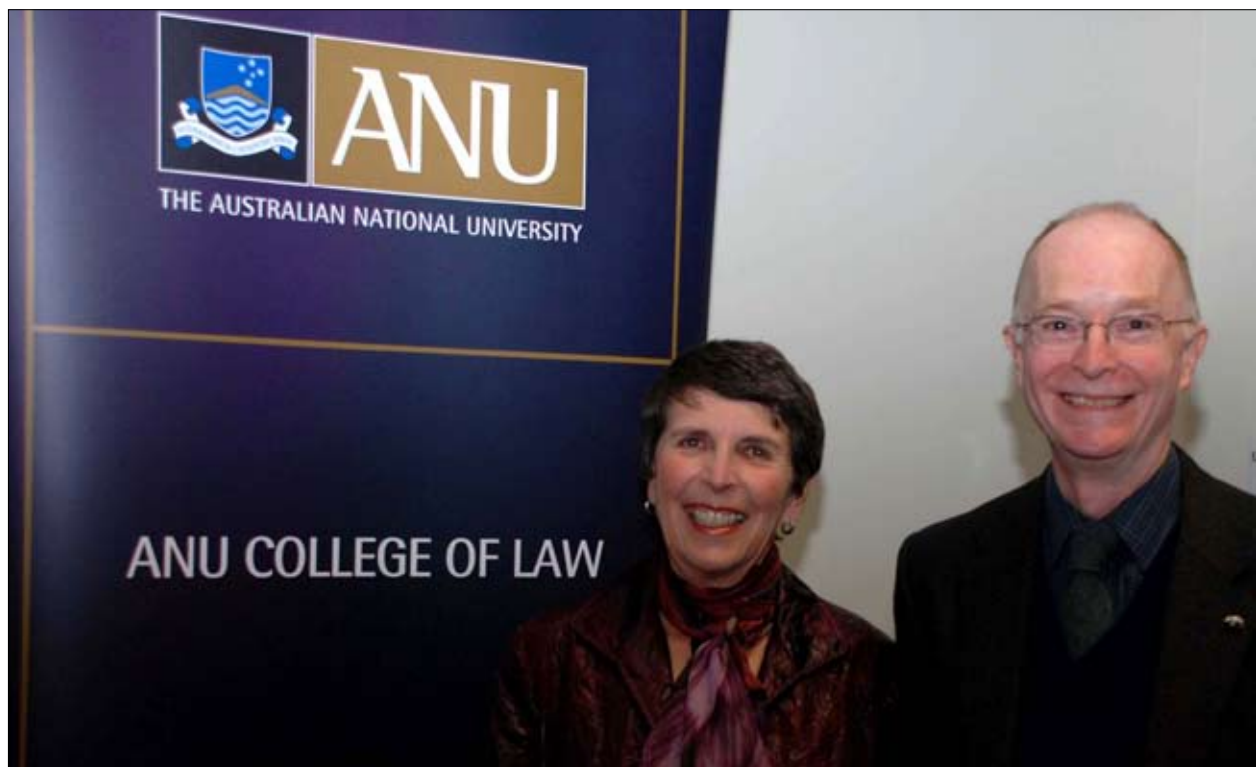

Image: Judge Mary Schroeder and Peter Cane.