

CIPL E-bulletin – Vol 2, No 2, 26 April 2007

Dear CIPL associates,

Welcome to the second E-bulletin for 2007. Since our last bulletin, CIPL has been particularly busy. A highlight has undoubtedly been hosting the Canberra launch of Sir Ninian Stephen: A Tribute however numerous public lectures and seminars have been held, attracting a wide variety of participants. Audio copies of most lectures and seminars can be found on the CIPL webpage at <http://law.anu.edu.au/cipl/events.asp>

I would also take this opportunity to let you know that the preliminary program and registration form for the 15th Annual ANZSIL Conference that will be hosted by CIPL is now available online. The title for this year's ANZSIL conference is Restoring the Rule of Law in International Affairs and will be held on 28-30 June 2007 at the National Museum of Australia, Canberra. Please see the link further below.

Our next CIPL newsletter will be released later this month. As mentioned late last year, in an attempt to reduce rising costs we have decided to distribute future editions of the bi-annual CIPL newsletter electronically. The Newsletter will continue to be formatted professionally in the manner that you are accustomed and will act as the primary means for disseminating information to members. An e-mail alert will be used to notify you when it is ready and can be viewed at <http://law.anu.edu.au/cipl/newsletter.asp> If you would like us to send you a hard copy as well you can contact Kavitha Robinson, our Project Officer and she will happily do so.

The E Bulletins will be issued every two months to keep you up to date on past events and forthcoming events between the newsletters. Past E Bulletins can be downloaded from <http://law.anu.edu.au/cipl/newsletter.asp>

NEWS:

CIPL was delighted to host the Canberra launch of Sir Ninian Stephen: A Tribute in February and the book launch was a huge success. Edited by Professors Timothy McCormack and Cheryl Saunders, the book contains a collection of essays by Australia's most respected legal, political and diplomatic figures. Professor's Kim Rubenstein and Hilary Charlesworth, both members of CIPL contributed chapters to the book and the foreword to the book is written by CIPL Board member, Justice Michael Kirby. The book was officially launched by The Hon AM Gleeson AC, Chief Justice of the High Court of Australia and both Sir Ninian and Lady Stephen were present for the launch, as were five of the seven current High Court Judges.

The other CIPL events to note are the ICJ Genocide Judgment lunchtime seminar held on 3 April 2007 and David Hicks in Court: An Update on Court Action in Australia and the US lecture held on the 11 April 2007. Both the events were well attended especially the David Hicks in Court lecture with more than 100 people in attendance. Handouts for ICJ Genocide Judgment seminar are available online at <http://law.anu.edu.au/cipl/Events.asp> and an audio copy of the David Hicks in Court lecture is available online at <http://law.anu.edu.au/cipl/Events.asp>
