CIPL and CIGJ invite you to hear a report by Professor Kim Rubenstein on the "Jewish 2020 summit" being held in Sydney on Monday 14th April, together with a report from ANU law student, Charlie Deutscher, who is participating in the Youth 2020 summit being held over the weekend of 12/13 April. In addition, members of the ANU participating in the Governance Group at the forthcoming 2020 summit will be present to hear your views on the governance topics to be covered at the summit.

These include:

- *open government and the media
- *parliamentary reform
- *administering government
- *rights and responsibilities

Please distribute to all interested parties!
