

THE ANNUAL PUBLIC LAW WEEKEND

The Annual Public Law Weekend was inaugurated in 1996 and dealt in alternate years with administrative or constitutional law from 1996 to 2005. From 2006 onwards a public law theme has been chosen to address both administrative and constitutional law issues. The conference now runs for a full day on the Friday and a half day on the Saturday.

2009	The Fourteenth Annual Public Law Week-end
Dates	12-13 November 2009
Theme	Change
2008	The Thirteenth Annual Public Law Weekend
Dates	31 October-1 November 2008
Theme	Public Law: Public Leadership
2007	The Twelfth Annual Public Law Weekend
Dates	9-10 November 2007
Theme	Death of the Rule of Law?
2006	The Eleventh Annual Public Law Weekend
Dates	3-4 November 2006
Theme	Perspectives on Accountability
2005	The Tenth Annual Public Law Weekend
Dates	11-12 November 2005
Theme	A Working Constitution? The contribution of Justice McHugh, Opening the archives on the Whitlam Government, Work and the Constitution and Other Current Issues
Convenors	Heather Roberts, Fiona Wheeler, John Williams
2004	The Ninth Annual Public Law Weekend
Dates	5-6 November 2004
Theme	Natural Justice: Still Natural, Still Just?
Update	Updates and Innovations in Administrative Law
Convenors	Robin Creyke, Leighton McDonald, Daniel Stewart
2003	The Eighth Annual Public Law Weekend
Dates	7-9 November 2003
Theme	The Australian Constitution in Troubled Times
Update	Recent Developments in Constitutional Law
Convenors	Fiona Wheeler and James Stellios
2002	The Seventh Annual Public Law Weekend
Dates	1-2 November 2002
Theme	Executive Power
Update	Administrative Law Anniversaries
Convenor	Robin Creyke
Publication	Public Law Intersections , Centre for International & Public Law, 2003.
2001	The Sixth Annual Public Law Weekend
Dates	2-3 November 2001

Theme Intersections of Constitutional Law
Update Recent Developments in Constitutional Law
Convenor John McMillan
Publication Public Law Intersections, Centre for International & Public Law, 2003.

2000 The Fifth Annual Public Law Weekend

Dates 10-11 November 2000
Theme Administrative Law Intersections
Update Recent Developments in Administrative Law
Convenors Judith Jones and Daniel Stewart

1999 The Fourth Annual Public Law Weekend

Dates 5-6 November 1999
Theme Recent Developments in Chapter III of the Constitution
Update Recent Developments in Constitutional Law
Convenors Adrienne Stone and George Williams (ANU)
Publication The High Court at the Crossroads, The Federation Press 2000

1998 The Third Annual Public Law Weekend

Dates 6-7 November 1998
Theme The Contribution of Sir Gerard Brennan to Australian Administrative Law
Update Recent Developments in Administrative Law
Convenors Robin Creyke (ANU) and Patrick Keyzer (UTS)
Publication The Brennan legacy: Blowing the Winds of Legal Orthodoxy, The Federation Press 2002

1997 The Second Annual Public Law Weekend

Dates 7-8 November 1997
Theme Critical Perspectives on Australian Constitutional Law
Update Recent Developments in Australian Constitutional Law
Convenors Deborah Cass, Jennifer Clarke, Fiona Wheeler (ANU), John Williams (University of Adelaide)
Publication Adelaide Law Review vol 20 no 1 1998

1996 The First Annual Public Law Weekend

Dates 30-31 August 1996
Update Recent Developments in Administrative Law
Convenors Robin Creyke and John McMillan (ANU)
Publication The Kerr Vision of Australian Administrative Law at the 25 Year Mark
Centre for International and Public Law 1998