2012 SCHOLARSHIP

Australian College of Community Association Lawyers (ACCAL) invites applications for the Australian College of Community Association Lawyers 2012 Scholarship to contribute to the costs of undertaking postgraduate study in Strata Law or a related field at an approved university of the successful applicant's choice.

The Scholarship

The scholarship is open to competition between graduates in any discipline who are permanent residents of Australia or New Zealand and who wish to pursue advanced postgraduate study in the law relating to Strata Law or a related field at an approved university anywhere in the world.

Benefit to Students

The 2012 scholarship will be of an amount of up to AUD$15,000 to contribute to the cost of tuition at an approved university and to the costs of related travel, board, and living and other ancillary expenses.

The scholarship may extend to payment of costs for approved field work, but only as part of the course being studied by the applicant.

The ACCAL Council may in its discretion award more than one scholarship which in aggregate do not exceed AUD$15,000.

The Scholarship is awarded to coincide with the commencement academic year – ie February 2012.

Applicants should be persons who intend to pursue postgraduate study at an approved university in 2012, or by persons who are already pursuing postgraduate study at an approved university, to enable them to continue their studies. Persons who have completed their course of study at an approved university are not eligible for a scholarship.

Applicants should submit details of their academic and professional record and experience, proposed course of study, and a budget. Applicants should include a short statement setting out why the study will be relevant to Strata Law or a related field and how it will benefit those who invest, live or work in the field. They should also provide the names and contact details of three referees, and any other information considered by the ACCAL Council to be relevant.

The ACCAL Council will contact the three referees named by the applicant, but it may also contact on a confidential basis other persons who may know the applicant. (Please include e-mail contact details for your referees)

Applications must be submitted on an Application Form which can be obtained from the ACCAL General Manager.

Australian College of Community Association Lawyers (ACCAL)

The ACCAL Council shall make its decision on the above and any other criteria the Council considers may be appropriate, including the value of the proposed study and the likelihood of the applicant's success. ACCAL may decide in its absolute discretion, for any reason, that the 2012 Scholarship will not be awarded.

Closing Date

Monday 31 October 2011
