

Visit of Justice Sandra Day O'Connor

Former United States Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O'Connor, the first woman to be appointed to the Supreme Court, visited the ANU College of Law on Tuesday 12 September 2006 and addressed a packed lecture theatre on the role of foreign law in the United States domestic legal system. Justice O'Connor's talk may become available in due course.

Above: Professor Michael Coper, Justice Sandra Day O'Connor and Professor Kim Rubenstein.

Above: Justice Sandra Day O'Connor addresses students and staff in the Law Theatre.