

Australian Parliamentary Fellow

PARLIAMENTARY LIBRARY
INFORMATION, ANALYSIS AND ADVICE FOR THE PARLIAMENT

Do you have a keen interest in Australian politics?

Are you a recently awarded PhD looking to apply your research and communication skills?

Would you like to make a significant contribution to an issue of interest to Members of the Australian Parliament — and enjoy the benefits of working in one of Australia's most stimulating workplaces?

The annual Australian Parliamentary Fellowship supports an early career scholar to research and write a quality monograph for publication. The research must relate to the way Parliament functions, the way Senators and Members operate, or examine how a broad issue in national politics is dealt with in the Parliament.

The Fellowship is offered as a 12 months, fixed-term appointment at Parliamentary Service Level 6. The Fellow works in the Research Branch of the Parliamentary Library as part of a diverse team of experts providing high-quality information, analysis and advice to the Parliament. The salary starts at $70,279.

---

For more information and for information on how to apply, go to the Department of Parliamentary Services website at:

<http://www.aph.gov.au/dps/employment.htm>

email: dps.recruitment@aph.gov.au

or phone: (02) 6277 5666 (24-hour answering service)

Applications close 9 October 2009

