

Visitor Application Form

Complete this form, attach the three required attachments, and email all the documents as one file to visitorprogram@law.anu.edu.au. It is important that you provide answers to these questions below. We will communicate with you by email only.

About You

Name
Email address
Current position (eg PhD student, Lecturer, Barrister)
Current university or professional affiliation
English proficiency (including any TOEFL/IELTS score)

Your Referees (provide details of two academic referees)

Name
Email address
Phone number (include country code)

About Your Proposed Visit

Intended arrival date (format: day month year)		Intended departure date (format: day month year)
Which visitor program are you applying for? (select one only)	Visiting Fellow program Visiting Scholar program Visiting Research Student program

About Your Research

Title of the Research Project you intend to pursue at the ANU
Your general areas of research interest (no more than three)
Indicate the ANU College of Law academic who has research interests most similar to your own See further http://law.anu.edu.au/ResearchReview/Staff_Research.asp

Further Information Required

You must attach the following documents to this Visitor Application Form:

- A letter supporting your application that outlines why you would like to visit the ANU College of Law and how your visit will contribute to the College (1 page only).
- A research proposal outlining the research you propose to undertake during your visit to the ANU College of Law (1 to 3 pages only).
- A resume that includes details of your past and present experiences relevant to your proposed research project and a list of your most recent and important publications (1 to 3 pages only).

Important Notes

Failure to complete this application form and attach all the above documents may mean that your application is not considered.

Your application should be no longer than 9 pages (including these 2 pages).