

Australian
National University

6TH CIPL WORKSHOP: CONNECTING INTERNATIONAL AND PUBLIC LAW
EN/GENDERING GOVERNANCE:
FROM THE LOCAL TO THE GLOBAL

Centre for International & Public Law

ANU College of Law

www.anu.edu.au

DAY 1: MONDAY, 6 AUGUST

9:00–9.15am	WELCOME – Kim Rubenstein and Katharine Young Introductions – Outline of Process for the Workshop
9.15–11.00am Session 1	GENDER EQUALITY AND GLOBAL CONSTITUTIONALISM: THE CHALLENGE OF LOCAL CUSTOM Gender Equality and Legal Pluralism in Post-Conflict Constitutions > Laura Grenfell, Adelaide University Constitutional Gender Equality and Local Responsiveness > Vijaya Nagarajan & Archana Parashar, Macquarie University Customary Law, Constitutional Law, and Women’s Equality > Susan H Williams, Indiana University
11–11.30am	Morning Tea
11:30am–1.30pm Session 2	GENDER, POLITICAL MEMBERSHIP AND LOCALLY PERMITTED EXCLUSIONS Polygamy: Who speaks for women? > Bev Baines, Queens University Courts, Congress and the Gendered Citizen > Kristin Collins, Boston University Gender and Race in the Self-Constitution of Tribes: The Impact of Indigeneity on Settler-state Political Theory > Kirsty Gover, University of Melbourne
1.30–2.30pm	Lunch
2.30–4.30pm Session 3	GENDER EQUALITY AND GLOBAL CONSTITUTIONALISM: THE INTERPLAY WITH THE LOCAL Rethinking the Australian Model of Promoting Gender Equality > Dominique Allen, Deakin University Gender Equality in Constitutions and Outcomes: A Cross-Country Investigation > Deborah Brennan, University of New South Wales & Astghik Mavisakalyan, The Australian National University Gender Equality in Transnational Constitutionalism > Vicki Jackson, Harvard University
7.30pm	DINNER – Scarth Room, University House, ANU

DAY 2: TUESDAY, 7 AUGUST

9:00–11.00am Session 4	GENDER ASSUMPTIONS IN GOVERNANCE DESIGN: THE CHALLENGE OF PARTICIPATION National Parliaments: A point of Disjuncture between Global Institutions and Local Ideas? > Sharon Bessell, The Australian National University Designing UN Women: Nested Newness and Gender Equality Architecture Reform > Fiona Mackay, University of Edinburgh Women in Government/Governance in New Zealand: A Case for Reform > Margaret Wilson, Waikato University
11–11.30am	Morning Tea
11:30am–1.30pm Session 5	GENDER ASSUMPTIONS IN GOVERNANCE DESIGN: THE POWER OF CONCEPTS AND MEASURES Corruption, Gender and Governance > Kath Hall, The Australian National University Gender and Regulation > Gabrielle Simm, The Australian National University Gender, Statistics and Justice > Scott Wisor, The Australian National University
1:30–2:30pm	Lunch
2.30–4.30pm Session 6	GENDER JUSTICE IN GLOBAL GOVERNANCE: THE CHALLENGE OF ACCOUNTABILITY Regulating Restorative Gender Justice through the International Criminal Court > Louise Chappell, University of New South Wales What do we know about the Informal Mechanisms of Dispute Resolution at International Organisations > Osmat Jefferson & Stephen Haigh, Queensland University of Technology Transcending Gender Inequity in an Age of Impunity –A Gender Critique of Accountability in Global Administrative Governance > Rohan Kapur, The Australian National University & Kelly Kristofferson
7.30pm	DINNER – Teatro Vivaldis Restaurant, Arts Centre, ANU

DAY 3: WEDNESDAY, 8 AUGUST

9:00–10.30am Session 7	GENDER EQUALITY AND LOCAL CONSTITUTIONALISM: NETWORKS, DRIVERS AND IMPEDIMENTS Women’s Negotiations: Politics, Peace and Gender in Afghanistan > Sari Kouvo, Co-Director, Afghanistan Analysts Network The Courts and the Women: Female IDP Organisations and Human Rights Litigation in Columbia > Julieta Lemaitre, Universidad de los Andes & Kristin Sandvik, Peace Research Institute Oslo (PRIO) Equality Without Freedoms? Political Representation and Participation of Women in Vietnam > Huong Nguyen, Indiana University
10.30–11.00am	Morning Tea
11.00–1.00pm Session 8	WOMEN’S NARRATIVES IN LAW MAKING In her own voice: oral (legal) history’s insights to the challenge of women’s participation in the civic space. > Kim Rubenstein, The Australian National University Responding to Violence in International and Public Law > Susan Harris Rimmer, Australian Council for International Development Berlin 1945: Rape and the Making of International Criminal Law > Heidi Matthews, Harvard University
1:00–2:00pm	Lunch
2.00–4.00pm Session 9	GENDER ASSUMPTIONS IN GLOBAL CONCEPTUAL CATEGORIES Is the Collective Feminine? > John Morss, Deakin University What Can Ecofeminism Contribute Towards Multi-Lateral Global Governance within the Environment > Kate Wilkinson, University of Sheffield Neoliberal Governmentality and the Retreat from Gender Equality > Margaret Thornton, The Australian National University
4:00–4:30pm	CLOSE – Discussion regarding the logistics for the book publication

C IPL is grateful for the financial support of the ANU Gender Institute and the ANU Centre for International Governance and Justice, Reg Net towards the running of this workshop.