

Semester One 2021

ANU Law Library Support

Legal Research Classes & Videos

If you are enrolled in Foundations of Australian Law, you will see us in an online class to teach basic legal research. For other classes we will also provide:

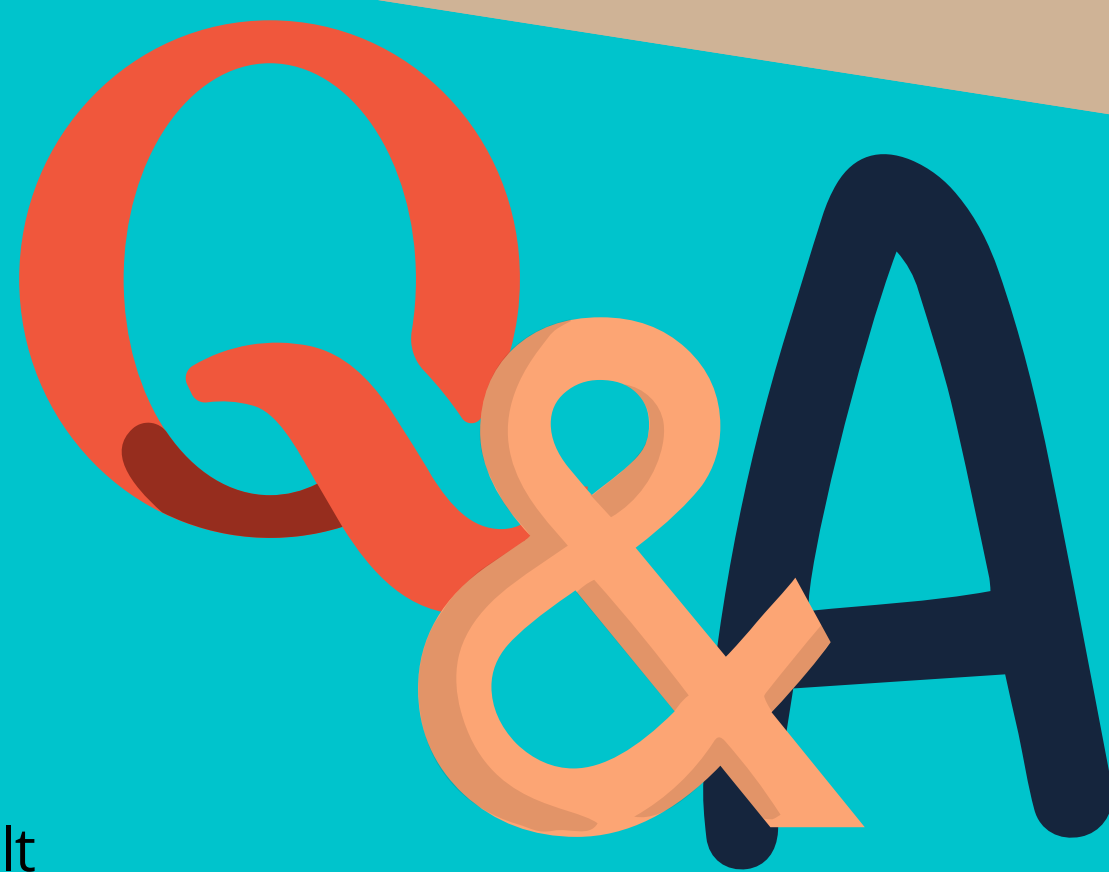

- legal research skills videos
- subject guides
- online quizzes

You can find tips on legal research and resources at our Law Subject Guide <https://libguides.anu.edu.au/law>

Online Legal Research Consultations

Are you undertaking a research project or a literature review? Having trouble finding a case? Need help finding an e-book? The ANU Law Library is here to help! Book an online session with a Law Librarian to find resources, review your search strategy and answer your Library and legal research questions, no matter where you are.

Book online at <http://quicklink.anu.edu.au/lawlibconsult>

Legal Research Unlocked

The "Legal Research Unlocked" site on Wattle is designed to host different resources to help students with their legal research questions. It covers much of the content you'll receive in our classes, and it is always there, 24 hours a day.
